THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 3.

AN ENCOURAGING ENAMPLE.-We were pleased to notice during our late visit to the Commission Merchants market house, that the stall of Mr. Granville Gillman, was attended by his son, MroWm. S. Cillman, (for some time a member of the bar at this place.) We cite the instance for the purpose of rebuking the idle young men, not only in this town, but all over the State, who are lounging about, waiting for something to "turn up," instead of doing, "with all their might, whatsoever their hands find to do."-Fredericksburg Ledger.

TRULY SAID.—The Baltimore Sun declares that "it is not saying too much to assert that ne fair-minded man in the nation, at this day believes that either Davis or Clay had the remotest agency or knowledge of the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, and that it is unworthy the lowest electioneering tricks to try to keep alive so foul a charge up on such utterly irrelevant, inconclusive, and unjustly colored statements as stamp the report of the committee, as a disgrace to the justice of the nation.

Boston papers claim that the statuary of their town in a few years will be ahead of any-Using in America.
